ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY

Upon being asked about a statement stating that Col. Stern had severely criticized the Army and the officers of the Alexandria Light Infantry, Capt. Slay-maker said he was very much astonished at the assertions made, which were distorted beyond recognition as based upon what actually was said by Col. Stern at the inspection. Col. Stern made absolutely no statement criticizing any officer and complimented the drill and appearance of the company, every member being absolutely correctly equipped, except one man who was a recruit, who had on tan shoes instead of black. He did call attention to the armory floor being poorly swept, which was due to the fact that the Red Men's Autumn Festival was only removed from the hall the day of the inspection, and the man who swept the hall that evening had not made a good job of it. Capt. Slaymaker said further, that while it is true that Quartermaster Sergeant C. M. Shep-person has asked for his discharge, the request was made while the company was in camp at Colonial Beach last month, to take effect after the inspection, and the request was based on personal business reasons, and while he will ask for the discharge as requested by Sergeant Shepperson, it will be an honorable one, as the sergeant has made the most efficient quartermaster the company has had in his experience since the Spanish war. The statement that Col.
Stern is unfavorably inclined toward the company is without any foundation, as he has expressed pleasure at the fine personnel of the company, and when the command was getting organized last summer, he pushed through the military board at Richmond two unusual appropriations to aid in getting the company properly equipped.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding] National Electrical Supply Co. vs.
Capital City Telephone Co.; dismissed, agreed.

E. O. Fritter vs. Washington-Southern Railway Co.; dismissed.

G. E. Sullivan vs. W. A. & Mt. V.
Rev. Co.; dismissed.

Sweet, Orr & Co. vs. R. L. Field; dismissed.

Anna F. Marbury vs. Bessie W.
Jones; case set for trial on the first day of the November term and special jury ordered for that day.

Zedekiah Mudd vs. Ernest Craven; judgment for plaintiff for $104.

Kate D. Markell vs. Charles E. Markell; decree for divorce on ground of desertion.

Ernest G. Chowning vs. Clara Mahood; decree for sale.

Walter P. Moore vs. Southern Railway Co.; judgment for plaintiff for $300.

The suit of McCormick vs. Bailey and Wren et al., removed by consent from the Circuit Court for Fairfax county, was heard upon the exceptions to the report of the commissioners. This suit involves the rights of material-men and contractors to share in the fund for the erection of certain dwellings at West Falls Church. The complainant is represented by C. V. Ford, of Fairfax Countyhouse; the contractors by Sleman and Lerch, of Washington, and the material-men by E. B. Taylor, of this city, and C. S. Hilyer, of Washington.
The case was taken under advisement.

AMUSEMENTS.

In speaking of entertainments the people should not forget that on Wednesday the Elks' Dramatic Club will present for the benefit of Mr. Frederick Schwab the comedy drama entitled "The Merry Cobbler." It is a good drama, is in the hands of competent performers and is for a worthy cause.

At the Opera House, as will be seen by the advertisement on this page, there will be an entirely new show, something that is worth your while to see, the Bradleys, acrobats; Martin Link, black face comedian, and Dolores Stevens, the greatest contortionist of the age, appearing before the footlights. None of these performers need praising as they are of a top-notch order.

Again the Surprise presents a new and up-to-date show, for commencing tonight and running until Thursday night there will be one of the best vaudeville acts presented by the management at this house. A glance at the advertisement will be convincing.

HORSE AND BUGGY TAKEN.

A horse and buggy belonging to Mr. J. W. Gaines was taken by an unknown man from the Royal street side of the City Hall at 9:45 o'clock last Saturday night. About 11 o'clock the horse and buggy appeared at Mr.
Gaines's home in Fairfax county, and the animal's efforts to enter the gate considerably damaged the vehicle. The owner, so far, has been unable to identify the parties who took the horse and buggy away.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

While Mr. Frank Arnold was at work in the planing mill of W. A. Smoot & Co., at the corner of Montgomery and Columbus streets, this evening he accidentally got his left hand caught in the joiner box, and in the twinkling of an eye the knife cut off the thumb and part of his hand. Dr. McGuire was summoned and after staunching the flow of blood sent his patient to the Alexandria Hospital for further treatment.

CARDINALS WIN.

In a game of football played yesterday the Cardinal Athletic Club easily defeated a picked team by the score of 32 to 0. Hamilton, Triger, K. Cockrell and Sullivan played for the picked team but they couldn't do anything against the C. A. C. last evening. The Cardinals will play the Yarmouth eleven in Washington next Saturday.

shall & Bro., 422 King street.

HOWE'S GREAT LONDON CIRCUS.

The clowning part of a circus program is not understood by the outsider.
There are times during the show when there is not a clown in sight, and then in the next instant the track will almost swarm with them. They seem to spring from the ground, and they will disappear as quickly. The presence of the clown is appropriate and is desired with most circus acts, and again there are some features which would be ruined if they were allowed to be clowned. The best clowns are born, not made. These men who appear so dignified and quiet upon the streets and out of the circus ring would never be picked out as being clowns on the road, but they are. The work of the clowns with the Howe's London Circus is not the same day after day, as they take delight in springing new jokes and new tricks, which entertain the members of the troupe as well as the audience.

Howe's Shows will be here tomorrow.

GLASS BLOWERS.

At the regular meeting of Branch 68, Glass Blowers' Association on Saturday night the following officers were elected and installed. President, Wm.
Driscoll; vice-president, Geo. Walters; recording secretary, Wm. McCaffrey; financial secretary, Wm. Wells, treasury Frank Wells. Henry Schnell, the retiring president made a few remarks.
He thanked the Branch for the honor which had been conferred on him through his election to the National Convention last summer as a member of the auditing committee. He regrets the fact that he is leaving this city for reasons which he is unable to overcome.
He was one of the pioneers of Branch 68 being a member of it when there were only 8 members and now it numbers about 130. The Branch is sorry to lose him as he was a hard worker for their interests.

MR. BELT'S CONDITION.

The many friends and acquaintances of Rev. Osborn Belt, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, who about a week ago collapsed under the mental and physical strain incident to the labors of a revival service in Fairfax county as well as the care and incidental work in connection with his own congregation, will regret to learn that his condition is still far from being satisfactory. He at times is more serene, but no substantial improvement is apparent. The reverend gentleman was this morning removed to Baltimore where he will be placed in a sanatorium. It is believed that through rest and proper treatment he will soon be restored to health.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

James Self, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

James Brown, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Alice Gailshan, charged with a similar offense, was fined $2.50.

A Fairfaxian, charged with assault, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

A paperhanger, charged with violating the Sunday laws, was fined $2.

DEATH OF MR. GLOVER.

Mr. Charles E. Glover, son Mr. Charles E. Glover, died yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents, 420 south Washington street, after a long illness.
The deceased was a well-known young gentleman, who had many friends and acquaintances. He was 22 years old.
For a number of years he was an attaché in stores of this city. Recently he became a sufferer from pulmonary trouble and was compelled to relinquish his occupation. His death occurring as it has at the threshold of manhood is sincerely regretted by all who knew him.

PAPERHANGER FINED.

Complaint was made to the police yesterday that a paperhanger was violating the Sunday law by placing interior adornments in a dwelling on south Royal street. The accused was cited to appear before the Police Court this morning to show cause why he should not be fined. When he faced the bar he said he had been unable to finish the work of papering a room last Saturday, and in order to have it ready this morning it was necessary for him to place a few strips on the wall yesterday. He was fined $2.

FOOTBALL.

The A. A. C., journeyed to Washington Saturday and played the strong Warwick one of the most interesting games ever seen played by amateur eleven in Washington. The Alexandria team played a star game as they were playing against the pick of Washington, among them being Lleronis, De Mar and Smith, the latter playing with Georgetown. With 20 seconds left in second half the A. A. C. left the field on account of the referee changing his decision. Later the referee awarded the game to the Warwicks by the score of 1 to 0.

THE COOL WAVE.

The low temperature which set in Thursday night still prevails, and early this morning conditions were uncon-formably cool, so much so that fires were kindled in many houses. The mercury was almost down to the 50° mark. The wind was from the northwest, from which quarter clouds were sent scudding across the heavens. According to the forecasts of the Weather Bureau, present conditions will continue for several days. At noon the mercury had risen to 64°.

Jersey, formerly of Alexandria, is visiting Mrs. Robert Lucas at No. 520 south Fairfax street.

Mr. John Patrick, of West Virginia, is on a visit to relatives in this city.

"THE THIEF ON THE CROSS"

Madame Mountford, a native of Jerusalem, who has encircled the globe three times and has addressed great crowds in the large cities, delivered one of the most thrilling addresses ever heard in Alexandria, before a congregation that filled the Washington street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, last night. It was the first of a series the rest of which will be given on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings of this week in the Young People's Building.

Madame Mountford has an intimate knowledge of her subject. She talks upon "The Bible and the Holy Land." The land she knows as only a native of Palestine can know it; the other she sees through the mind of the Oriental, and so makes the figures and imagery real. Her subject last night was "The Thief on the Cross." Her portrayal of that immortal scene was most impressive. She showed the connection between the psalm of the psalms, with the nobleman going "into a far country," and the penitent thief crying, "Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom." She was dressed in the picturesque costume of the Orient.
The subject this evening will be "The King of the Shepherds."

TWO MEN SCALDED.

Meers, Harvey Bell and Thomas Monahan were painfully scalded yesterday at the machine shops of the Southern Railway in this city. They were standing on a ly tub at work when the tub collapsed and they were thrown into the liquid. Both men were removed to their homes where they received medical aid.

SCHOOL PERMITS.

Since last Monday the clerk of the City School Board has issued 74 permits to children to attend the public schools —12 to white boys, 18 to white girls; 17 to colored boys and 27 to colored girls.

Madame Mountford carried everything before her from her first to her last appearance. — Bishop J. H. Vincent.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES

Yesterday was a clear, crisp Sunday, and many people enjoyed the day out of doors. The churches were fairly well attended.

Elmo, the infant son of Mr. J. F. and Mrs. Hilda S. Lettine, died at the home of his parents, at Hume Springs, yesterday.

A marriage license was issued in Washington on Saturday to Clarence L.
Remsburg and Cornelia R. Darre, both of Fairfax county.

An entertainment and reception will be given by the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. O., at Lee Camp Hall tonight.

Attention is directed to the notice of the clerk of gas. No discount will be allowed on the bills for the quarter which ended September 1st after the 1st prox-imo.

The big safe in the old First National Bank building is being taken out of the building, Hail and Marvin Safe Company, and it will be sent to New York.

To see Madame Mountford in Oriental costume is to spend an evening in the Holy Land. Let me commend this citizen of Jerusalem to my friends who may wish for an instructive entertainment. — Bishop J. H. P. Newman.

Extra! Extraordinary! Simply marvelous! Great news has been received at the station on the King Edward Islands. Mr.
Einsten has discovered the South Pole. This is no "Cook-ed up" story, either. And now that you know you found the bottom of the world, we take it for granted that you know the Auth Market is the home of the finest home-killed fresh meat in Alexandria, no matter what Mr. Peary says. Sylvan Blom-heim, the Auth Market and the Auth Stand.

Miss Jennette Wood, who was visiting her cousin, Mrs. Louisa Beckwith, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has just returned to her parents at their residence, 1011 18th street northwest, Washington.
